REDMOND, Washington (April 28, 2009) — Epoch Design, LLC, manufacturer of the Mail Boss™ locking security mailbox and innovative provider of USPS approved security mailboxes in the U.S., will be introducing their new high security locking mailbox product line at Booth #37538 at the 2009 National Hardware Show in Las Vegas.

To satisfy growing customer demands, Epoch Design has created the new Mail Boss™ Package Master™ locking security mailbox, the only standard-sized 'bin-mailer' that can accept packages and still securely store mail without being vulnerable to fishing. The Package Master™ will be featured in the New Product World at the National Hardware Show.

Epoch Design will also be showcasing new accessory products for the popular Mail Boss™ curbside locking mailbox, including newspaper holders.

In addition to introducing the new Mail Boss™ product line, Epoch Design will also be honored at the National Hardware Show with the prestigious 2009 Golden Hammer Communications Award for outstanding Signage. The award, sponsored by Home Channel News, recognizes exceptional suppliers that demonstrate the greatest overall commitment, creativity and success in support of home-center and hardware retailers through the medium of Point-of-Purchase Signage.

Epoch Design earned the Golden Hammer Award based on its "Stop Mail Identity Theft" marketing campaign, available for viewing at www.mailboss.net/mail-boss-wins-2009-golden-hammer/.

This is the second year running Epoch Design has won the Golden Hammer Communications Award; in 2008, the company was honored for the "Mail Boss is Peace of Mind" television ad campaign in the category of Business-to-Consumer Advertising.
